

Ohio Slavic and East European Newsletter

Published for the Slavic Studies Community in the State of Ohio by the Center for Slavic and East European Studies, The Ohio State
University, 230 West 17th Ave.,
Carole Rogel
Editor

This issue of OSEEN is the last for this academic year and it brings to a conclusion what we hope has been a highly successful year for the Ohio Slavic Community. While OSEEN will not be published over the summer, we intend to keep an active file of information about forthcoming activities and programs for the next academic year. Items may be submitted throughout the summer for publication in our first issue of the 1978-79 academic year--September 14, 1978.

OHIO SLAVIC CALENDAR

- |              |   |
|--------------|---|
| May 27, 1978 | -WOSU Radio Series (12 noon) 8.20 AMJames Sehnert, "Life in Poland Today"                |
| June 8, 1978 | -WOSU-TV (8:00-9:00 p.m.) channel 34,"Solzhenitsyn at Harvard: A View and an Evaluation" |

Summer Events

- |                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| August 8, 1978  | -WOSU-TV (12:30-1:30 p.m.) channels 34 & 42,"Society in Transition: Balkan Anthropology";Drs. Joel & Barbara Halpern, University ofMassachusetts, Dr. Yvonne Lockwood, University ofMichigan and Dr. John Friedl, Ohio State University   |
| August 15, 1978 | -WOSU-TV (12:30-1:30 p.m.) channels 34 & 42,"Languages in Contact: The Case of SoutheasternEurope"; Dr. Howard I. Aronson, University ofChicago, Dr. Kastis Kazazis, Univ. of Chicago,Dr. Ilse Lehist, Ohio State University andDr. Kenneth E. Naylor, Ohio State University |
| August 22, 1978 | -WOSU-TV (12:30-1:30 p.m.) channels 34 & 42,"Mount Athos: A Living Medieval Community";Drs. Matejic and Twarog, Ohio State University   |

WANTED--STUDENT VOLUNTEERS--AAASS NATIONAL CONVENTION

OCTOBER 12-15, 1978

(1476) Student volunteers are needed to help at the AAASS Meeting, October 12-15, 1978, at the Neil House, Columbus, Ohio. Volunteers will receive free registration. For more information call: Dr. Kenneth Naylor, Chairperson of the Local Arrangements Committee or Rosa Cormanick, Committee Associate at (614) 422-6773.

CSU CHORALE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN EUROPEAN FESTIVAL

(1477) The Cleveland State University Chorale, directed by Ernest L. Hisey, has been invited to be the guests of the Wroclaw Technical University in Southern Poland, and participate in the XVII Moniuczko Music Festival at Kudowa Zdroj. The Chorale will travel with 30 members to give additional concerts in: Walbrzych, Aula Leopoldina of Wroclaw University, Cracow and Warsaw.

The C.S.U. students involved raised money for the trip by holding a Concert-A-Thon in University Center on Tuesday, May 16, from 11:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

The Chorale has recently performed on a tour of Northeast Ohio. Concerts were presented in the Canton and Youngstown areas.

CONTEMPORARY SOVIET SOCIETY OFFERED AUTUMN QUARTER AT OSU

(1478) The course "Contemporary Soviet Society" (Sociology 503) will be offered during the Autumn Quarter on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7-9:00 p.m. Those not enrolled as OSU students may take the course by registering as transient students (the Admissions Office--422-3980--can provide more information on transient student status.)

Professor Jerry Pankhurst will direct the course, which explores the Soviet Union from a sociological perspective. The four major topics covered in the course are the Soviet family, religion, non-political deviance (crime, delinquency, alcoholism), and varieties of political dissent. Additional information may be obtained by calling or writing Dr. Pankhurst at the Department of Sociology, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio 43210, phone (614) 422-8567.

CALL FOR PAPERS WEST SLAVIC SECTION CONFERENCE

(1479) The Northeast Modern Language Association (West Slavic Section) will hold a conference, March 29-31, 1979, in Hartford, Connecticut. The theme of the conference is: "The Literary Resonance of the 'Polish October' and of the 'Prague Spring.'"

Papers may deal with Polish and Czech literary works mirroring those social, political, and cultural factors which contributed to the 'thaw' of 1956 and the Prague Spring of 1968. Other topics may include individual writers, literary circles, and journals. The papers should ideally highlight the relationship of the writer, work, journal, or circle to the events and ambience of the 1955-1957 period in Poland and the 1966-1968 period in Czechoslovakia. Proposals of no more than 100 words should be sent by September 15, 1978 to the address below. Papers may not exceed seven typewritten double-spaced pages in length. Suggested topics: a) Vaculik, Kundera, Havel, Kohout; b) Mrozek, Kolakowski, Herbert, Lec and c) Czech and Polish Cinema: the "New Wave". Send proposals to: Alex Kurczaba, Program in Comparative Literature, 2070 Foreign Languages Building, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois 61801.

SYMPOSIUM ON CZECHS IN TEXAS

(1490) Texas A&M University will sponsor a symposium entitled "The Czechs in Texas," October 27-29, 1978, in Temple, Texas. Subjects may range from social structure to language and folklore, but approaches which help define issues associated with ethnic identity and assimilation are especially desirable.

Papers should be directed toward a general audience, and reading time should be 20-30 minutes. A 300-word abstract must be submitted by July 15, 1978. Please indicate whether you will require audio-visual equipment.

In addition to the papers, panel discussions or workshops will be held on the following subjects: music, genealogy, language instruction, and assimilation.

Send abstracts and inquiries to: Clinton Machann, Project Director, Texas Czechs Symposium, Department of English, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF SOUTHEAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

(1491) The Fourth Congress of the Association internationale de'etudes du sud-est europeen will be held in Ankara, Turkey, August 22-27, 1979. For more information or for those interested in participating in that congress contact: Professor Charles Jelavich, Department of History, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 47401

SUMMER WORKSHOP AT HARVARD FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL TEACHERS

(1492) The Soviet and East European Language and Area Center of Harvard University will sponsor an intensive workshop for secondary school teachers June 26-30. It will be led by Paul Hollander, Professor of Sociology, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, and Dr. Janet G. Vaillant of the Russian Research Center, Harvard. Professor Hollander has written widely on soviet Society and is author of American and Soviet Society: A Comparison, published in 1973 by Oxford University Press. Topics for discussion will include ideology and official values, political institutions and practices, social stratification, the family, and current social problems. Each will be considered with reference to its American counterpart. Aid from the U.S. Office of Education will enable the workshop to be offered free to qualified applicants. Places are limited. For information or application form write Janet Vaillant, Soviet & East European Language and Area Center, Harvard University, 1737 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, MA. 02138, or call (617) 495-5852 or 495-4038. (Source: The National Newsletter for teachers of pre-college Russian and East European Studies, April, 1978.)

MELLON FOUNDATION GRANTS IN RUSSIAN STUDIES

(1493) It was recently announced that the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation awarded two grants of $600,000 each for research and training programs in Russian Studies. The recipients of those grants were Columbia and Harvard Universities. (Source: The Chronicle on Higher Education, May 15, 1978.)

FULBRIGHT HAYS OPPORTUNITIES ABROAD

(1494) Romania--Full year or one semester in any of the following fields: monetary theory, foreign trade and international finance, econometrics, computer applications to economic planning, quantitative economic analysis. Academy of Economic Studies, Bucharest. 9/78-12/78, 2/79-6/79.

Greece--Counseling and guidance teaching in secondary school teachers in-service program; theoretical and practical aspects of guidance and counseling with vocational emphasis. Experience in vocational guidance or college/university training of counselors essential. Ph.D. preferred. Lectures in Greek. Ministry of Education. 9/78-6/79 For more information, contact Council for International Exchange of Scholars, Suite 300, Eleven Dupont Circle, Washington, D.C. 20036

FULBRIGHT SCHOLARS FROM ABROAD AVAILABLE FOR APPOINTMENTS 1978-79

(1495)

ROMANIA

Two scholars have been nominated for Fulbright travel grants and per diem awards up to $30. Inquiries are welcome from institutions able to offer teaching appointments with some financial supplement--either monetary or in kind. For further details and resume, contact Georgene B. Lovecky telephone 202-833-4987.

Mr. ACHIM MIHU, Professor of ANTHROPOLOGY and SOCIOLOGY. University of Cluj-Napoca since 1958. Ph.D., University of Bucharest, 1969. Books on sociological investigation, small group sociology, sociometry, Mills and Marxism, more than 100 articles. Interested in appointment for teaching Sociology of Human Nature, Sociology of Social Action, or Romanian Culture and Civilization, and opportunity to collect material for Romanian anthology of American sociology.

Mr. COLUMBEANU DIMITRIE SERGIU, Senior Researcher. Institute of History "Nicolae Iorga," Bucharest, since 1955. Ph.D. in modern history at the Institute, 1969. Seven books on Romanian and European history, a number of papers. Interested in appointment for teaching MODERN ROMANIAN HISTORY (1812-1918).

YUGOSLAVIA

Three scholars have been nominated for Fulbright travel grants and per diem awards up to $30. Inquiries are welcome from institutions able to offer teaching appointments with some financial supplement--either monetary or in kind. For further details and resume, contact Georgene B. Lovecky telephone 202-833-4987.

Mr. VLADIMIR IVIR, Associate Professor of LINGUISTICS. Faculty of Arts and Letters, University of Zagreb since 1960. Ph.D., Zagreb University, 1965; postgraduate diploma in English Linguistic Studies, University College, London, 1963. Numerous articles, many in contrastive analysis. Interested in teaching/research arrangement: teaching Serbo-Croat language, English/Serbo-Croat contrastive analysis, Serbo-Croat syntax or translation; research fields of interest are semantics and syntax of English adjectives, linguistic theories of translation, problems of lexical contrastive analysis.

Mr. MARKO KRASMANOVIC, Associate Professor. Faculty of Fine Arts, Belgrade since 1962. Postgraduate diploma, Faculty of Fine Arts, Belgrade, 1955; Central School of Arts and Crafts, London, 1960-61. One-man shows of GRAPHICS AND PAINTINGS in Yugoslavia, Poland, France and Belgium; participant in exhibitions elsewhere in U.K., Argentina, Egypt, Italy, Germany, and U.S.A.; works in Museums of Contemporary Art in Belgrade, Zagreb, Skopje, Warsaw, Cracow, Geneva, Bradford, Royal Library in Brussels. Interested in working with American and other artists in all media, but especially intaglio printing, lithography and silk screen. Willing to give illustrated lectures on contemporary Yugoslav graphic art and education methods. Nominated for placement as artist-in-residence and lecturer on Modern Art in Yugoslavia.

Mr. MILOŠ RADULOVIĆ, Professor of ECONOMICS. University of Titograd since 1963. Doctorate, Belgrade University, 1968. Four books and a number of articles on price policy and practice, industrial production and labor productivity. Interested in lecturing on Yugoslav socio-economic and socio-political system.

For further information contact:

COUNCIL FOR INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE OF SCHOLARS

Suite 300, Eleven Dupont Circle, Washington, D. C. 20036

